

PROFESSIONAL INTRO

Let me begin with a few questions:

- Have you ever thought social media was just a giant waste of time?
- Could you use new ideas to become truly memorable within your network?
- Are you ready for tons of great tips that are quick to do and produce a big impact?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, you’re in the right place!

Our speaker today has spoken from Boston to Budapest teaching professionals how to get hired, promoted, and grow their business with her Sway Factor™ system for social networking success.

When she’s not speaking or training, you’ll find her road biking, at a rock concert, or opening a bottle of wine at one of Chicago’s trendy new restaurants.
